Old Church — New Life 1st January 2017

Another New Year!

Today we welcome the New Year. For some of us it will be a time of transition and substantial change or others it's an opportune time to stop and rest after a busy 2016 or to catch up on all those jobs we've put off in our busyness.

The media will have also reviewed the year that was, the events that shaped the year. Internationally we face a great deal of change and uncertainty. A new and controversial President will begin his term while other nations rattle proverbial sabres while others like Syria continue to tear themselves apart at the expense of their people.

How, as Christians, do we respond to our own challenges and opportunities and our changing world? Three things come to mind: 1) As we make decisions and choices, let our yes be yes and our no be no; 2) Actively trust in God and look to him for the wisdom and help we need for whatever will come in the New Year and 3) Pray anew for God to be at work in our lives, the lives of those around us and the world in which we live.

THIS WEEKS READINGS:

JANUARY 2017 ROSTERS

Michael will be away for a weeks leave around the 15th. We will have two combined services this month. The first combined service will be Sunday 15th January, when Rob Healy will be preaching and the second combined service will be the 29th January (the 5th Sunday), when Ian Malcolm will be preaching.
