Old Church — New Life

14th July 2019

Fed by his Word

Guide me, O thou great Redeemer,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
Hold me with thy powerful hand:
Bread of heaven, bread of heaven
Feed me till I want no more.
Feed me till I want no more.

Open thou the crystal fountain
Whence the healing stream shall flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through:
Strong deliverer, strong deliverer
Be thou still my strength and shield.
Be thou still my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death, and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side:
Songs of praises, songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.
I will ever give to thee.

This Welsh hymn is just over a century old, the music written by Welshman John Hughes and the words by William Williams. It's a familiar hymn that reminds us of one of the great pictures describing the Lord Jesus as the bread of heaven. We return to Matthew's gospel today to look at a familiar passage that has deep and profound undertones as Jesus comes as the new Moses, the new Law and the new Word of God. He comes and feeds the people with physical bread but through his words feeds us with spiritual bread that can only give life in abundance. As we read and rest on Jesus' words so we too enjoy life giving food.

THIS WEEKS READINGS:

Amos 7:7-17

Matthew 14:13-21

SERMON PREACHED BY:

Revd. Michael Stuart

Title: Provisions in the Wilderness

MISSIONS

Please pray for the People Aid. Lynne Dainton will be able to tell you more about this very important ministry.

PeopleAid delivers aid that works. We give a hand up, not a handout, by breaking the cycle of inter-generational poverty through sustainable business creation.

PeopleAid provides the means for a sound, debt free, income producing business through its four main programs – Market Carts, Rickshaws, Wells, Sewing Machines.

You can also find out about People Aid on our Missions Board or for more information you can go to www.peopleaid.org

Church Matters

OUR PLACE IN THE KINGDOM

Karrinyup Anglican Church will be having a MORNING TOGETHER on Saturday 27th July from 9.30 to 12.30 to enable us to have fellowship around the Word of God, and to learn from one of Western Australia's best known and loved Evangelical teachers, David Seccombe.

After providing significant leadership to St Matthew's Anglican Church in Shenton Park, David moved, nearly 30 years ago, to Cape Town, South Africa, to be Principal of George Whitefield College, which has been a crucial centre for the equipping of gospel workers across Africa. David is adding to his already extensive body of works expounding the Bible. He has published a book called The Gospel of the Kingdom: Jesus' Revolutionary Message, and is currently working on a new work focusing on the books of Luke and Acts.

The focus of David's teaching at our Morning Together will be on the Kingdom of God, which was one of Jesus' key areas of teaching, expounded both in parables and in his teaching on prayer. In particular, David will lead us to see what our place in the Kingdom is.

The morning together will be chaired by our rector, Michael. It will include morning tea, an interview, and two talks by David.

You are welcome to contact me, on L.Malcolm@ecu.edu.au, or phone 9243 0705 for further information.
