Old Church — New Life

16th September 2018

What is the Gospel?

The word gospel literally means "good news" and occurs 93 times in the Bible, exclusively in the New Testament. The gospel is, broadly speaking, the whole of Scripture; more narrowly, the gospel is the good news concerning Christ and the way of salvation.

The key to understanding the gospel is to know why it's good news. To do that, we must start with the bad news. The Old Testament Law was given to Israel during the time of Moses (Deuteronomy 5:1). The Law can be thought of as a measuring stick, and sin is anything that falls short of "perfect". The righteous requirement of the Law is so stringent that no human being could possibly follow it perfectly, in letter or in spirit. The punishment for sin is death, i.e. separation from God, the source of life (Romans 3:23). In order for us to go to heaven, God's dwelling place and the realm of life and light, sin must be somehow removed or paid for. The Law established that cleansing from sin can only happen through the bloody sacrifice of an innocent life. (Hebrews 9:22).

The gospel involves Jesus' death on the cross as the sin offering to fulfil the Law's righteous requirement (Romans 8:3-4; Hebrews 10:5-10). Under the Law, animal sacrifices were offered as a reminder of sin and a symbol of the coming sacrifice of Christ (Hebrews 10:3-4). When Christ offered Himself at Calvary, that became a reality for all who would believe (Hebrews 10:11-18). The work of atonement is finished now, and that's good news. The gospel also involves Jesus' resurrection on the third day. The fact that Jesus conquered sin and death (sin's penalty) is good news, indeed. The fact that He offers to share that victory with us is the greatest news of all (John 14:19).

Church Matters

Just before Christmas last year, at the final Playgroup session I had a huge shock when I turned on the tap to start the washing up. There was a loud bang and steam began to rush out of the cupboard door filling the kitchen. Outside too, there was steam and a lot of built up dirt rushing out of the over flow pipe. God was looking after us. The tables for the children's morning tea had been set up right next to the overflow pipe and had I turned on the tap just 10 minutes later we would have had children sitting at the tables by the overflow that we had no idea existed.

The water heater that is positioned under the kitchen sink had been playing up for some time, sometimes not delivering hot water. The water heater was not the problem this time but a valve had corroded through. The valve was replaced but the water heater remained an issue.

Thanks to so many generous people, the water heater was replaced last week and at the same time the urn that had not been working has also been fixed. Our appreciation is extended to these people who have made the repairs possible and given us consistent hot water.

In Christ, Lynne Smith (People's Warden)
