Old Church — New Life

24th April 2016

The Council of Jerusalem

Council of Jerusalem, was a meeting of the early Christian Church, ie Apostles and elders, in Jerusalem in about 50 AD. The gathering decided that Gentile Christians did not have to observe the Mosaic Law of the Jews. It was held because certain Judaic Christians from Jerusalem taught that Gentile Christians, from Antioch in Syria, had to obey the Mosaic custom of circumcision. A delegation, led by the apostle Paul and his companion Barnabas, was appointed to confer with the elders of the church in Jerusalem.

The ensuing apostolic conference (noted in Acts 15:2-35), led by the apostle Peter and James, "the Lord's brother," decided the issue in favour of Paul and the Gentile Christians. From this time onward Gentile Christians were not bound by the Levitical ceremonial regulations of the Jews, except for the provisions of the so-called apostolic decree: abstention "from what has been sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from unchastity" (Acts 15:29).

NEW CHRISTIAN MOVIE - GOD'S NOT DEAD 2

I don't normally put this kind of thing in the newsletter but I was privileged to be able to attend an advanced screening of the new Christian movie "God's Not Dead 2" this past Tuesday evening and I think this movie deserves support. It will be showing at Innaloo cinema beginning April 28. Make sure you check for the times.
