Old Church — New Life

24th December 2017

Treasure Christmas

In Luke Chapter 2 we're told that when Mary gave birth to Jesus and found herself visited by the shepherd and saw the peoples' amazement, she treasured these things in her heart. Christmas is a time to treasure the things that matter, the things that are precious and the things that endure.

We treasure the blessings we do enjoy such as a roof over our head, the material things we enjoy and have been given. We treasure the world in which we live, the sun and sea, the trees and the life they shelter and the time we have to enjoy it all.

We treasure good friends, the people whose company we enjoy and value, whose advice and counsel we seek. We treasure our family, the people who gave us life, the people with whom we grew up and those who we love and love us. We also remember with thanks and fondness those friends and family members who are no longer with us but shaped our lives.

Most of all we treasure Jesus and the life we have in him, knowing such life comes at a great cost. His birth was quiet, all but unnoticed and mundane. His life was anything but that.
