NOTHIN' LIKE A GOOD BARBIE

While working with BCA in New South Wales I visited the Parish of Bourke. The highlight was a trip on Sunday to a little community called Weilmoringle. Quite a decent sized group of us enjoyed a BBQ and beers together followed by a service in the school hall. It was a cracker of a day I really enjoyed. The great Aussie BBQ is a tradition grounded in the importance, opportunity and pleasure of sharing a meal together, of spending time together in heart-felt fellowship. In Luke's Gospel we see Jesus enjoy such fellowship again and again. It was a picture for the great banquet God's people would enjoy at the end of time, promised in Isaiah 25.

When we gather around Holy Communion, when we gather around a meal, it's not just a chance to enjoy friendship and fellowship together. It's a foretaste of what we will enjoy when the Lord returns, the great eternal Sabbath when we enjoy the rest and redemption God has won for us in Jesus in every way. We pray, proclaim and look forward to that day. Maranatha Lord Jesus.
