AT GOD'S RIGHT HAND ON HIGH

This last Thursday was Ascension Day. The day doesn't fall on a Sunday because Jesus ascended to heaven 40 days after his resurrection. Acts 3 though implicitly reminds us of the ongoing reign of Christ. On the one hand it is hidden, unseen and subtle and yet through the power of the Spirit and the proclamation of the gospel it is revealed day after day as lives, like the cripple, continue to be transformed when people look to Jesus who has made the way for us.

It also means he hears our prayers as we live as those sanctified and sent into the world. He is home, that home will be ours, the home that is our hope and goal as we look to the future. For the ancients time was eternally circular. The Judeo-Christian world-view recognizes that history moves forward, progressing towards a specific goal. For many that is some ideal utopian vision grounded in human achievement but for us it is the day when God's kingdom will come to earth as in heaven in all its fullness in Christ, as evil is finally brought to an end.
