29th January 2017

Folly or Faith?

In the 2nd Century Polycarp the Bishop of Smyrna was about to be executed for his faith. At one point the Proconsul asked him whether he was Polycarp. On hearing that he was, he tried to persuade him to apostatize, saying, "Have respect for your old age, swear by the fortune of Caesar. Repent, and say, 'Down with the Atheists!'" Polycarp looked grimly at the multitude in the stadium, and gesturing towards them, he said, "Down with the Atheists!" "Swear," urged the Proconsul, "reproach Christ, and I will set you free." "86 years have I have served him," Polycarp declared, "and he has done me no wrong. How can I blaspheme my King and my Savior?" Not long after this he died for his faith.

Mission, and its heart that is the Cross of Christ is still foolishness to many. Why travel across the world to dangerous places to bear witness to Jesus Christ in word and deed? Like Paul Christians through the ages recognize the Cross is not foolishness but rather it is life saving and world changing. That is why mission continues across the world.

Michael Stuart
